LOCAL PASTOR IS CHOSEN HEAD OF KENTUCKY COLLEGE

Rev. W. B. Campbell, Pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, Highly Honored By Being Chosen Head of Educational Institution.

Telegrams received here Tuesday evening announced that the Board of Directors of Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, in session at Lexington Tuesday, had elected Rev. W. B. Campbell, of this city, to the presidency of this great college.

For the past five years Rev. Campbell has been pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, of this city and during his residence here he has made a great number of friends who are heartily congratulating him upon this recognition of his ability and worth to the Methodist denomination.

Kentucky Wesleyan, located at Winchester, is the Southern Methodist church's college in this state. It is recognized as one of the leading educational institutions of the state of Kentucky and has a fully equipped plant of several fine buildings located on a spacious campus. Its courses are such as to be found in a standard denominational college and Mr. Campbell, in assuming the presidency, follows a list of eminent educators who have made themselves and the college felt all over Kentucky.

Mr. Campbell will take over the President's chair on the first of September and it is to be hoped that the Bishop of the Kentucky conference will send to Maysville a pastor who will have as much influence for good in the church and the community as did Mr. Campbell and his splendidly gifted wife.

BOY PRACTICALLY BLIND IN ONE EYE FOUND IN TEST

Child Welfare Campaign in Mason County Is Proving Well Worth While—Last of Week Tests Will Be Given in Washington.

Miss Annie M. Casey, Mason County Health League's nurse, who has been conducting free examinations of children throughout the county in the County Child Welfare Campaign, reports that much interest is being displayed and that much good is being accomplished through the tests given in the various precincts.

During the first part of this week tests are made daily in Mayslick and on Thursday of this week colored children in the two Mayslick precincts will be given examinations.

On Tuesday a boy about 12 years of age was brought by his parents to Miss Casey for examination and the nurse soon discovered that the boy was practically blind in one eye. The eye trouble had not been noticed by the boy or his parents and this is but one example of the worth of such examinations. The boy will be given treatment at once and a desperate effort will be made to save his eye sight.

On Friday and Saturday of this week Miss Casey will be at Washington for these free examinations. Saturday will be given over to the examination of colored children and all are urged to take advantage of the opportunity offered them. There is no cost whatever connected with the examinations.

AUGUST IS BUSY MONTH

The month of August is quite a busy month in Maysville and vicinity. Besides the Free Farmers' Chautauqua which closes today, there are the fairs in this section, a big circus and the visit here of a platoon of artillerymen. All of these things are making this quite a busy month.

GEORGE DULEY BACK ON FIREMAN'S JOB

Mr. George Duley has been appointed to succeed Henry Newell, resigned, in the local Fire Department. Mr. Duley has before served on the department and besides being a very efficient fire fighter, he is an expert automobile driver.

CINCINNATI OFFERS TO FURNISH FIRE ENGINES

Mayor Thomas M. Russell this morning received a letter from the Director of Public Safety of the City of Cincinnati, offering to furnish the city with fire engine pumps to protect the city from fire if necessary.

FARMERS MEETING TO CLOSE WITH THE PROGRAM TONIGHT

Number of Prominent Speakers on the Program of the Free Farmers' Chautauqua at Beechwood Park—Tuesday's Program Was Unusually Good.

Although there is not the amount of interest being displayed in the Free Farmers' Chautauqua being held this week at Beechwood park that probably should be taken by the farmers, a good number of people are taking advantage of these opportunities to hear some of the best posted men and women in the state.

Tuesday's program was unusually good and among the speakers were Prof. C. W. Mathews, garden expert of the State Experiment Station, Prof. Gronert, of the Center University, Danville, and Prof. V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Education of the State of Kentucky.

Prof. Mathews spoke of the importance of farm gardens and orchards. He said that we had in Kentucky the ideal location, midway between the extremes of temperature for the raising of fruits. He showed with how little trouble, grapes of many varieties could be raised and so of many other fruits.

He advised the farmers not lay out their gardens in little narrow squares, as was necessary in city gardens owing to lack of space but to take six or eight acres that there would be plenty of room between the rows to cultivate with horse. He said the rows should be perfectly straight not only for beauty but because they could be closer worked with the modern apparatus used in gardening.

Prof. Gronert of Centre College, Danville spoke of the importance of Education and the Church to the prosperity and true citizenship of the country.

He traced very eloquently the downfall of nations that did not educate and train their citizens in religion. He said that Arizona, his own state, of about the size of Kentucky and very like it in topography had three times the assessed value of property within it. This though it is a much younger state. He attributed it to the greater attention paid to education. He gave a striking illustration of the value of the public school system. He said he knew that the young Germans of Wisconsin were patriotic. They had volunteered easily and Wisconsin troops had distinguished themselves in some of the war drives. Their parents sympathized with Germany, but the young people educated in our public school had been trained to love America, and were loyal Americans.

Mr. Gilbert, Superintendent of the Public Schools of Kentucky, made an earnest entertaining talk on the value of the rural schools and urged that farmers take more interest in them for the sake of their children and the value of their property. He ridiculed, in a good natured way, the moving of farmers to town to educate their children, after letting their farms run down, when the same money put into their home school would enable them to keep their own comfortable homes and get really a better education for their children in mind and body.

The programs for today are also very promising. Dr. I. N. Wittenberg, the first full time Health Officer in the state of Kentucky, and a member of the State Board of Health, will speak on the subject "Health Is Wealth" this afternoon and Miss Dora Sonnenday, Home Economics Expert, will speak on "Home Making". Prof. W. S. Anderson, of Kentucky University will speak on "Better Stock by Better Breeding." The chautauqua will be brought to a close this evening by an address on "Rural Relief Work" by Dr. S. E. Brewster, of the American Red Cross, who has seen much service in Europe and who has had years of experience in research work.

The large chautauqua tent should be filled both afternoon and evening. Remember there is no expense attached to the chautauqua.

FERRY WILL RUN ON THURSDAY

Government steamboat inspectors were expected here on Thursday to inspect the Aberdeen-Maysville Ferry boat Laurence and it was reported that the boat would not run. Because of the big soldiers' home coming in Aberdeen Thursday, however, Inspectors Peyton and Dameron have kindly consented to postpone the inspection until Friday and the Laurence will make regular trips Thursday all day and until late at night.

PUTTING UP CIRCUS BILLS

A crew of advertisers for the John Robinson Circus arrived in town today and began at once posting signs all over the city and throughout the county.

COUNTY TAKES OVER THE HEALTH WORK OF THE CITY

Commissioners Make County a Health Unit Relieving City of Expense of Health Board and Health Officer.

The action of the County Commissioners on Tuesday in making Mason county a health unit is far reaching in that it relieves the city of a Health Board and the employment of a Health Officer.

For some time the city officials have had considerable trouble in getting a Health Board that will serve and the action of the Commissioners makes it unnecessary for the election or appointment of such a board and also makes it unnecessary for the City Council to employ a City Health Officer, who in the past has been paid a salary of $60 per year.

Under the action of the Commissioners the County Board of Health will have jurisdiction over the entire county, the City of Maysville included, and the County Health Officer will have jurisdiction in the city under this authority from the county.

This plan was advised by the State and Federal Health authorities and will meet the approval of the city officials as well as the county. For several months the City of Maysville has had no Board of Health but in the future the County Health Department will act in the city as well as in the country districts of the county.

MERZ BROTHERS TO HAVE LATEST EQUIPMENT

Workmen are busily engaged in installing new fixtures in the Merz Brothers big department store. When this work is completed this big store will be one of the best equipped stores of the kind in the state and the stock will be protected so that the best of service can be rendered at all times to their many patrons.

FIRST FREIGHT TRAIN FOR WEEK ATTRACTS ATTENTION

About nine o'clock Tuesday evening a freight train passed West over the C. & O. the first for about a week. The train attracted a great amount of attention and folks ran to the cross streets to see what the noise on the railroad men. One was reminded of the first train passing through on a new railroad.

DROUTH IS GETTING VERY SERIOUS IN DISTRICT

The drouth throughout this section and especially in Mason county is proving very serious to the farmers. Rain must come within the next few days to save the crops from almost entire ruin. All crops have now been cut a great amount on account of the serious drouth.

GASOLINE SUPPLY WAS NEARING THE BOTTOM

The release of the embargoes on freight in this district is just coming in time to prevent a serious shortage of gasoline such as to greatly interfere with business and pleasure. The local gasoline dealers have almost run their tanks dry but relief is now in sight.

REPORT ON PRICE OF WHEAT TO BE MADE AT SATURDAY'S MEETING

County Agent Has Made Thorough Investigation on Price of Wheat For This Section and Report Is Expected on Next Saturday.

There will no doubt be a very interesting meeting of the Mason County Board of Agriculture at the office of County Agent George Kirk in the Chamber of Commerce building on next Saturday which will be open to the public and it is expected that because of the investigation on the price of wheat and grain for this section which has been conducted through the County Agent's office for the past month that there will be a good attendance. The meeting will be open to the public.

It will be remembered that some several weeks ago there were so many different prices being offered for grain by different dealers in this county that the County Agent was asked to learn just what the equitable and just price was for Mason county grain and an investigation to learn was started.

It is understood, that Mr. Kirk, the County Agent, has made a very careful investigation and has information from the Grain Commission at Washington which will fix the just and fair price for wheat and other grains which the farmers of Mason county should obtain and it is more than likely that this information will be given the public in Mr. Kirk's report to the Board of Agriculture on the results of his investigations. This will probably attract many of the meeting.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL WATER COMPANY CONSUMERS

It has been found necessary to again notify all customers of the Maysville Water Company that they must, at once, cease all and any use of water for sprinkling streets, lawns, yards and gardens, or for washing automobiles or other vehicles until further notice. In order to conserve the city supply for fire protection and to supply the Water Company's customers with a sufficiency for strictly domestic consumption, the above prohibition will be enforced to the limit of the law.

ABERDEEN'S RECEPTION TO SOLDIERS THURSDAY

All Plans Are Made For Big Day in Neighboring Town When Returned Soldiers of Township Are Given Welcome.

Committees from the Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Red Men as well as the Grange, have united in making the great Home Coming Celebration in Aberdeen on Thursday a great event which will long be remembered by the soldiers who will be honored and all those who take advantage of the day for an outing.

The day will be full from morning until midnight. No gap has been left open and there will be one continuous big time for all who spend the day in Aberdeen.

A large platform will be erected in Second street where the speakers of the day will be heard and a number of the soldiers will also be asked to tell something of their experiences while abroad. The Maysville Boys' Band has been employed to furnish music during the day. The band will play a concert on the streets and will head a great parade of soldiers and lodge men through the principal streets of the town.

In the evening a big banquet and dance will be given and the youngsters will have the town as their own for the entire day. A number of Maysville people are expecting to spend the afternoon in Aberdeen.

GETTING BUSY ON TICKET SALES FOR CHAUTAUQUA

The managing committee of the Maysville Chautauqua is getting somewhat scared up about the sale of tickets and they are this week working over time in an effort to get the necessary guarantee sold before the chautauqua begins. All who have not yet purchased their season tickets should do so at once and thereby assure the committee of financial success.

SPEEDERS AND TAIL LIGHTERS FINED

The raid of local police on speeders and those drivers of automobiles who fail to keep their tail lights properly burning is continuing and several such were before Judge Whitaker today and pleading guilty, paid the usual fines.

The great Lewis County Fair at Vanceburg August 13, 14, 15 and 16 will be bigger and better than ever this year. The premium list is a very large one.

LOCAL RAILROAD MEN RESUME WORK THURSDAY; EMBARGOES OFF

Maysville Railroad Men Who Have Been Laid Up For the Past Week Receive Orders to Go Back to Work Thursday Morning—Freight Moving Slowly.

Some thirty Maysville railroad men who have been off duty for the past week because of the strike of shopmen in the Silver Grove yards of the C. & O. will go back to work Thursday morning according to information received here today.

Orders were received for the Maysville yard crew to go back to work Thursday morning at the regular time and the crews of the two local freights—East and West—leave tonight for Russell and Silver Grove to man their trains and resume their regular trips Thursday. The members of the two Maysville section crews went back to work Tuesday.

No assurance was received at the local C. & O. station on when the Maysville accommodation would start its regular trips but it is generally believed that it will be put back on its regular trips Thursday morning, too. Indications this afternoon were that all freight embargoes would be lifted Thursday when freight trains will again start but it will probably take a week to clear up the congestion in the big freight yards at Silver Grove and Russell.

There were a few freight trains operating Wednesday but only a few while it is expected that by Thursday evening these heavy freights will be running very close together in a desperate effort to clear up conditions in as short time as possible.

PICNIC TOMORROW

The Sunday School of the Second M. E. Church, South, will give their annual picnic at Beechwood Park Thursday afternoon and evening. The students will gather at the church at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and go to the park in a body. Lunch will be served at 6 o'clock and following lunch prayer meeting will be held in the park. Games and other pleasures will be planned for by a committee.

LAWS AGAINST FOOD PROFITEERING

Now that food price investigations are getting under way almost everywhere, it is interesting to know that ample laws are on the statute books to send the guilty parties to prison for the term of one year, besides assessing a heavy fine.

Enforcement of the Valentine anti-trust law in Ohio would have punished every one agreeing to limit production, increase price or prevent competition by a fine of $5,000 and a year in prison.

The act of the legislature giving powers to the Bureau of Markets and Marketing, provides that the duties of the bureau shall be: "To investigate the cost of production and marketing in all its phases.

"To gather and disseminate information concerning supply, demand, prevailing prices and commercial movements, including common and cold storage of food products and maintain market news service for the purpose of disseminating such information.

"To make rules for the handling of foods.

"To investigate the practice and methods and any specific transaction of commission merchants and others who receive, solicit, buy, handle on commission, or otherwise, food products.

"To act on behalf of the consumer in conserving and protecting their interests in every practicable way against excessive prices.

"To take such means and use such powers, relative to shipment, transportation and storage of food stuffs of any kind, as may be necessary and as it may deem advisable or desirable in case of emergency creating or threatening to create a scarcity of food within the state."

Thus it may be seen that the present investigation is no child's play and it is only fair to hope that if any guilty parties are operating in Maysville that they be revealed and punished to the full extent of the law.

MORAN THE MIRACLE MAN

In past years it has always been unsafe to predict what the Cincinnati Reds will do from one day to the next, but just at present it doesn't appear to be extravagant to remark that Pat Moran's team is pretty well assured of first place in the National league, even if Mr. McGraw's Giants, fighting for the top rung of the ladder, with scant advantage.

Patrick Moran, who has guided the destinies of the Reds for the present season, is an unquestioned baseball genius. Especially does he possess that necessary ability to develop pitchers. His outfield is regarded as the weak member of an otherwise hard-fighting baseball machine. Mr. Moran is the miracle man of the National league once more.

It begins to look as though the race for the pennant this year might revolve about a "case of nerves" for both the Giants and the Reds. If both teams keep going with the speed and vigor that have marked recent weeks it will take a brave fan to predict just how the old year is going to wind up.

With good hard fighting from now to the end of the season it looks as though Cincinnati will be able to carry away the bacon.

SUMMER'S HIGH TIDE

In the spring we plant and sow; in the summer and through the mellow autumn time we harvest and gather in the kindly largess, which God so freely gives, asking of us only that we labor as we should, says an exchange.

April, May and June have passed; and now July is hastening to join her radiant sisterhood, but still smiles upon us with her golden warmth and cheer.

There is dust in the road, where barefoot laddies may kick and "spat" to their hearts' content. The birds, most of them, have nested, and the young ether-wingers are learning their lessons in the great school of experience, which makes its demands upon bird and bee and butterfly, even as it does upon man and maid and little child; the tomorow beastie and the colossal pacyderm.

July—and the poppies are blazing; the primrose is nodding by the waysides and in the pasture fields, while meadow-queen is donning her royal robes. Overhead stretches the same blue way through which June passed so joyously, where float the white and dreaming argosies we call summer clouds; and all around us drone, or ring, or shrill, or swell the many harmonied melodies of bird and insect and animal joy in the fact of existence. The summer is at the high tide of pulsing life.—Middletown (O.) Journal.

Our own position on Shantung is that we would not refuse to put on a pair of pants, if they were our only hope, just because they had a patch on the seat.—Ohio State Journal.

One man who isn't disturbed in the least, either, by these comings or these goings of the President is Mr. Marshall. In either case, he is still Vice President.—Detroit News.

THREE HUNDRED YEARS OF NATIONALISM IN AMERICA

Constitutional Government in This Country Has Developed Wonderfully Since Jamestown Settlement.

Washington, August 13.—Tracing the history of America from the time of the first settlement at Jamestown in 1619 through 300 years of growth to the present day, the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement showing the continuous development of Constitutional government in this country. The statement contrasts the record of three centuries with the complete reversal of national policy that now confronts the country.

"On July 30th, 1619, exactly three hundred years ago, the first legislative assembly in the New World was organized. The scene was Jamestown, and the event was the first meeting of the House of Burgesses of Virginia. Thereafter popular government spread throughout the colonies as they were formed by immigrants from the Old World intent upon escaping from the oppressions of Europe. In 1620 the Mayflower compact was drawn up as the governing pact for the Plymouth colony in Massachusetts. In 1638 Connecticut adopted the first constitution, which bears a striking similarity in fundamentals to our own Constitution. In 1643 the first effort to form a union was successfully made. Four colonies, then operating under separate charter governments, combined into the so-called 'Union of the New England Colonies.' In 1754 Benjamin Franklin proposed what was known as the Albany plan for a union of the thirteen American colonies, but it was rejected by England because it was too democratic, and by the colonies themselves on the ground that it was aristocratic. In 1776 the idea of independent government was embodied by Thomas Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence. The year 1781 witnessed the unsuccessful experiment of the Articles of Confederation, but in 1787 the Constitution was drafted and adopted. From that day to this it has remained the fundamental law of the land, with amendments from time to time to meet conditions as they changed. Under its provisions the United States has grown from a nation of 3,000,000 souls to a world power with 110,000,000 people and double the wealth of any other country on earth.

"That has been the history of American expansion and national development through a period of 300 years. It is a record the equal of which cannot be found elsewhere in the entire story of human progress. From the very beginning the men who directed the affairs of America were imbued with a fundamental inspiration, that of divorce from the institutions of the Old World, from the oppressions of which they had emigrated across the ocean. From the earliest times the tendency has been to make more secure our independence from the influence of Old World autocracies, and enduringly cement the institutions that have made our national prosperity possible.

"But now what a change! An American President, elected to perpetuate the very principles that have been our guide from the beginning, advocates the abandonment of the objects for which we have striven for 300 years, and the immediate return to the very conditions the colonists sought to escape. He would have us subjugate the American Republic to the dictation of a world council, composed of six empires and kingdoms and three republics, in which the United States would have one vote and foreign nations eight. Is that the manner in which Americans wish to commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the establishment of popular government in the New World?"

In the national war garden, the Bolshevik is the barberry bush.

England Will Not Discontinue Its Red Cross Motor Service After the War.

Red Cross motor service which "carried on" in England during the war will not hear the order to demobilize. The British Red Cross has a plan whereby the entire country will be divided into sections with no place more than 15 miles from a motor ambulance. Five hundred of the ambulances so familiar to any of the Americans who were in Boulogne during the war are now being housed in stations throughout the kingdom.

Control of the system will be under a commissioner and central office which will guarantee the efficiency of the car and service.

Ambulances which are too war-torn or not adapted for this phase of peace work are being added to the enormous number of cars and motorcycles, now being sold or scrapped.

This is just one instance of how the Red Cross is adapting its service to the peace time needs of the world.

In a recent letter to D. C. Dougherty, Acting Manager of the organization in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, F. C. Monroe, General Manager at National Headquarters, Washington, D. C., writes of the future of the Red Cross chapters saying:

"If we embrace the opportunity that lies open to us now, the work that we did during the war, great as it was, will pale into insignificance when compared with the lasting effects of our work in the future."

WIPING OUT ILLITERACY

Kentucky is going ahead with its war on ignorance. It hopes, during the next year, to teach a hundred thousand adults in the State to read and write. It is a big task, but a large organization has been completed to handle it. The State hopes within the

EVIDENCE THAT CONVINCES

A Twice-Told Tale That Will Carry Conviction to Ledger Readers.

Fourteen years ago, Mrs. Burns publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

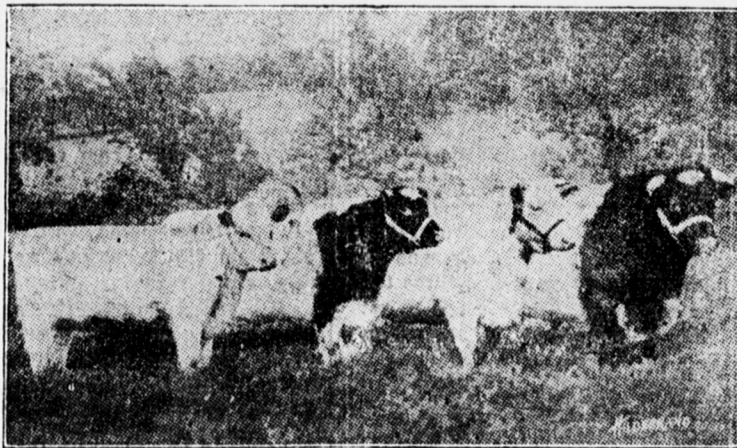

She then told of benefit she had received. With unshaken confidence, she confirms her statement—Tells how passing years have strengthened her faith in Doan's. There's no better test than the test of time.

Can any Maysville reader ask for more convincing evidence? Mrs. John Burns, West Second Street, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and the quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since." (Statement given February 13, 1914.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE
On November 15, 1914, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today, as ever. I have not needed a kidney medicine since I first took them." next year to be able to say that every adult in the state is able to read and write. It will be a proud day for the old Blue Grass State when that statement is true. For generations Kentucky has been a State of extremes, dense ignorance and classical education being found in adjacent sections of the State. Little can be done in the development of the best citizenship without schools, books, newspapers, magazines, and the general information they make possible. Heads that are dark with ignorance are usually dull and heavy. If Kentucky gets all her men and women started she will have done a real service to her people.—Ohio State Journal.

Cash Premiums of $40,000 Is the Guarantee Fair Banner Beef Show

Of the $110,000 offered in prizes for live stock and agricultural exhibits at the seventeenth annual Kentucky State Fair to be held in Louisville the week of September 8-13, $40,000 has been apportioned to the Beef Cattle and Fatted and Feeding Cattle Department alone. In consequence, it is expected that the greatest exhibit of fine cattle in the history of the Fair will be entered for competition in this department.

It was the purpose of the State Fair management, in assigning this gigantic sum to the cattle division of the Fair to stimulate the rapidly waning industry of cattle raising and breeding and the interest already exhibited proves the potency of the move.

Three of the leading brokers of America have entered many carloads of the choicest steers and she stuff in the fatted and feeding cattle class and the whole allotment will be sold at public auction to be held on the State Fair grounds, beginning Thursday of Fair week. Jack Lawler, Sherrell and Lett and William Daniels and Brother of Chicago, are the consignors of three cars of steers and two of heifers for the first, three cars of steers and two of heifers for the second, and four cars of steers and one of heifers for the last named.

These entries have every one been selected by competent judges from the many thousands of cattle passing through the Union Stock Yards in the past ninety days and will offer a splendid opportunity for feeders and dealers.

Although a lesser sum was assigned to the beef cattle department last year a most encouraging exhibition was the response to the Fair's substantial premium awards and, arguing from this fact it is expected that the competition and auction in the cattle department will eclipse any former event in Fair history. A great showing of Herefords marked the 1918 exhibit, but a better one is looked for this season. With $5,000 offered in the Short-horn Division it is expected that this competition, which is open to the world, will bring forth an unusual showing.

The Blackfaced Aberdeen Angus have also developed popularity and are regarded as strong "comers."

A Kentucky Futurity with $3,000 in awards, is announced for breeders and owners of the above named varieties of cattle. $1,000 is set aside for the Herefords, Shorthorns and Aberdeen Angus breeds.

The futurity is limited to Kentucky cattle only and is for animals under two years of age. There will be six classes for each breed. The various rules and rings will be found in catalogs which will be mailed on application to Fount T. Kremer, Secretary Kentucky State Fair, Louisville, Ky.

THE CHAUTAUQUA AIDS DEMOCRACY

Experience in Aylmer Shows It To Be a Wonderful Educative and Inspiring School.

(By Thomas Hammond)

Perhaps no other word in our language, or no other thought among the people of the world, has been more in prominence and of more influence during the past four or five years, than the word and the idea, "democracy," and I know of no other innovation in recent years that is so well adapted to broaden our thoughts and cause us to break away from our self-centered complacency—in other words, to become democratic, as that wonderful educative and inspiring school, the Chautauqua, that has visited many of our towns and cities during the past two years. Last week was Chautauqua week in Aylmer, and the writer did not miss a minute of the inspiring music and lectures presented by this great instructive, inspiring and pleasure-giving organization. During the week, including Sunday, the immense gatherings of both rural and urban citizens were favored by eleven lectures, nine concerts and a delightful melodrama. The talent was the best that could be found among many countries, including France, Wales, Italy, Australia, United States and Canada.

Chautauqua, located in its home town in the republic to the South of us, for many years has been recognized as the greatest Summer School in the world, and while thousands attended each year, yet to the great mass of people it was out of the question to enjoy its advantages. It is said that when the mountain could not go to Mahomet, Mahomet decided to go to the mountain. Similarly, as our people could not go to Chautauqua, the Chautauqua has come to us.

I have no brief for the Chautauqua, but I wish I were able to impress my readers to fully appreciate the wonderful opportunity that this organization brings to their doors. A few years ago while spending a few months in New York City, I appreciated more than anything else the opportunity of hearing the greatest pulp orators and lecturers that could be drawn to that centre. The heart is combed for talent in that great city, irrespective of the cost, and fortunate is he who can spend a few weeks and take advantage of such an opportunity. Now we have a similar advantage when the nations of the earth are combed by this organization for all kinds of talent that is uplifting, and this talent is brought to our doors. Besides the greatest musical talent, both vocal and instrumental, the greatest lecturers of modern times discuss subjects that are of vital importance to all of us—subjects dealing with almost every phase of life. These lectures designedly embrace such topics as lead to a better understanding of the motives and inspirations of the various races and nationalists of the earth. In other words, these lectures teach the brotherhood of man—the world's democracy. Two of these lectures deal with different phases of the world's democracy. Two of these lectures deal with different phases of child life as a national asset. These lectures are by Judge Fred G. Bale, of the Juvenile Court of Columbus, Ohio, than whom, perhaps, no living man has a better grasp of the subject of child welfare or can tell it better.

The Chautauqua is an ideal school for adults who have left the classroom, as well as for the younger people. It is no circus whose employees are toughs of the low type that follow the tent, but all in connection with it are college men—college graduates and the best type of college students working their way through a collegiate course by touring the Canadian provinces with the big Chautauqua tent during their three months of summer holidays. The writer has heard teachers remark that they were pleased to have their pupils come in contact with the courteous young men who accompany the Chautauqua. Their influence is all that could be desired. In fact, the Chautauqua has been founded, developed, and designed by some of the most intelligent, broad-minded, Christian men in America and should be patronized by all within reach for their own sake, and for the uplift of humanity that must result from such a summer school as a Chautauqua.

THE IDEAL WOMAN

The greatest Napoleon once said: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful, featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation,—that woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health." To attain such health in middle life a woman must guard against those ills which drag her down and produce nervousness, headache, backaches, sleeplessness and "the blues." The standard remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for forty-five years have been restoring women to health and strength.

The commander is awaiting the coming of Colonel Henry B. Farrar, commander of the 83rd field artillery, who is expected today. Brigadier General Raymond W. Briggs, commander of Camp Knox, inspected the outfit and camp at Blue Grass Park Sunday, witnessing the exhibition of attack given in the afternoon.

Twenty-eight recruits for the regiment were enlisted by the detachment during its two weeks' stay in Lexington. Capt. John Townsend, commander, announced. Thirty-six were signed up during the entire tour, eight having been enlisted at Frankfort and Mt. Sterling.

Leaving Lexington Wednesday, the outfit, consisting of 50 horses, two field guns, a field ambulance and about 60 men, will march to Georgetown for a three days' stay and on to Paris and Cynthiana. Maysville will be combed for recruits the last of the month. The recruiting tour of the detachment, beginning and ending at Camp Knox, will be 400 miles in length.

BIG CHAUTAUQUA OPENS NEXT MONDAY WITH BIG PROGRAM

Biggest Entertainment Bargain in America Made Available For Maysville—Program Is Extra Good.

If Maysville citizens wish to take advantage of the biggest entertainment bargain in America, they will need to act quickly for no Chautauqua season tickets will be sold after Chautauqua opens on Monday. By buying season tickets you and your family will be able to hear the finest music, entertainment and lectures in America at "movie" prices.

Colt-Alber furnished the program and the equipment. That is a guarantee of the best, and every season at least one attraction has been of such cost that it could not be heard in the cities for less than $2.00 a seat. This year's program is no exception to the rule, and the presentation of George M. Cohan's "Seven Keys to Baldpate" with Percival Vivian in the leading role is the greatest play undertaken in Chautauqua history; just as the presentation of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company, and still stands as the greatest musical undertaking in Chautauqua history.

Great Lecture Staff

Colt-Alber has never presented a finer array of lecturers with absorbing and entertaining subjects. There is Frank Bohn, who returns, because every community asked that he be returned, coming again direct from Europe where he recently visited France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and England. This summer his subject is "Revolutionary Europe", and is proving of even greater interest than his lecture of last summer.

Dr. James L. Gordon, one of America's great pulpit orators, comes from Washington, D. C., with his popular lecture, "Grace, Grit, and Greenbacks"; Dr. Cecil Grier brings a message on the Americanization of foreign-born women, an interesting and important lecture. Lieut. Jean A. Picard, of the Heroic French Army comes direct from Paris with an absorbingly interesting address on the problems that confront his country now in the reconstruction period. He will answer all questions and the audience will be given an opportunity at the close of his lecture to ask about what they are most interested in.

We are informed that Frank Branch Riley, of Portland, Oregon, is the most unique and interesting speaker ever placed on a Chautauqua program. He brings a wonderful fine lecture, illustrated, that he calls, "The International Northwest."

Mrs. Beyea, famous Red Cross nurse, who saw service overseas, brings a message about health of the home town, while Dr. Jas. A. Myers, colored orator, speaks on "Educating the Negro." Two of the outstanding figures on the program are Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of Denver Juvenile Court, known in every civilized land of the world for his great work for the children; and the man whom Col. Theodore Roosevelt characterized as "the greatest orator that has come out of the war," Signaller Tom Skehill, of Australia. Both will attract great audiences.

Excellent Variety of Music

Never has our Chautauqua presented a finer array of music, each attraction wholly different from every other attraction. Opening with the Old Home Singers, who give a unique melodious program of vocal music, and closing with the Famous Fisk Jubilee Singers, who give what is said to be the finest program of Jubilee songs and negro spirituals that has ever been given. In between appears such organizations as the Charles Edward Clarke Co., of three fine recital artists.

The Fighting Americans, a small band of players, all of who saw service in France, and who will render a rollicking patriotic program of instrumental and vocal music; the Hrabby Czech-Slovak Quintet of instrumentalists—one of Chautauqua's fine musical offerings, assisted by Miss Josephine Martino, prima donna soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Co., of New York City; and the famous Opheus Quartet, said to be America's finest singing male quartet.

Geo. M. Cohan's most successful comedy "Seven Keys to Baldpate", has been secured. The play will be given a fine production on the Chautauqua platform since it had been put into the hands of Mr. Percival Vivian of Ben Greet Players fame, for several seasons stage manager of the Morosco Theater, New York City, and during the past winter the creator of one of the three leading roles in Capt. Balmfater's delightful play, "The Better Ole", in support of Macklyn Arbuckle and DeWolf Hopper. Mr. Vivian has secured the original New York stage setting out down and modeled to fit the Chautauqua platforms. The members of the cast have been carefully chosen from among artists direct from Broadway successes last winter; the company will be under

FOOD HOARDERS WILL BE EXPOSED IS THE ATTORNEY'S PLAN

Attorney General Plans to Publish Names of Those Hoarding Food Stocks—"Pittless Publicity" Is Palmer's Plan.

Washington, August 13.—"Pittless publicity" will be employed by the government to force food hoarders to disgorge.

Names of owners of big stocks of food held in storage will be made public under a plan being prepared by A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general, as another step in his nation-wide campaign to suppress profiteering.

Palmer was expected to make this clear in a telegram to be sent today to 1600 district attorneys who are hunting hoarders.

The plan includes publicity for the prices at which food stocks were quoted when placed in cold storage together with the time held, present prices and other details.

This information will be given to the newspapers in each community by the district attorney, enabling residents to know just who gets the profit on the food.

Palmer intends, it is said, to create public opinion which will force hoarders to put their stocks on the market immediately and bring down prices.

Nearly complete information as to stocks of food held in storage is in possession of district attorneys in many cities.

The program in detail has been published in the Public Ledger.

YOUR HOUSE

IS WORTH MORE TODAY THAN IT WAS A YEAR AGO. IT WOULD COST YOU A LOT MORE TO REBUILD IT—IF THE FIRE DEMON GOT IT. SO WHY NOT INCREASE YOUR INSURANCE? SOME ARE ADDING A THIRD, OTHERS MORE. IT IS THE WISE THING—THE SAFE THING—TO DO. IT TAKES ONLY A LITTLE ACCIDENT TO TURN THE BIGGEST HOUSE INTO A PILE OF ASHES.

TODAY, IS A GOOD DAY TO TALK IT OVER WITH ME. I CAN SAVE YOU MONEY ON INSURANCE.
